DETAILED ACTION

1. Claims 1-5 and 21-34 are pending.
2. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 02/04/2008 has been entered.

Double Patenting

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-5 and 21-34 of the instant application are rejected by U.S. Patent No. 6,915,430, U.S. Patent No. 6,892,302, and U.S. Patent No. 7,047,414. A discussion of how independent claim 1 is met by each of the four cases is cited below. The examiner notes that the dependent claims are met by the four cases as well but haven't been specifically discussed for the sake of brevity.

Claim 17 of U.S. Patent No. 6,915,430 contains every element of claim 1 of the instant application and as such anticipates claim 1 of the instant application. Claim 18 of U.S. Patent No. 6,892,302 contains every element of claim 1 of the instant application and as such anticipates claim 1 of the instant application. Claim 28 of copending U.S. Patent No. 7,047,414 contains every element of claim 1 of the instant application and as such anticipates claim 1 of the instant application.

"A later patent claim is not patentably distinct from an earlier patent claim if the later claim is obvious over, or anticipated by, the earlier claim. In re Longi, 759 F.2d at 896, 225 USPQ at 651 (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting because the claims at issue were obvious over claims in four prior art patents); In re Berg, 140 F.3d at 1437, 46 USPQ2d at 1233 (Fed. Cir. 1998) (affirming a holding of obviousness-type double patenting where a patent application claim to a genus is anticipated by a patent claim to a species within that genus)." Eli Lilly and Company v Barr Laboratories, Inc., United States Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit, On Petition for Rehearing en Banc (Decided: May 30, 2001).

Examiner also thanks applicant for indicating a willingness to file a terminal disclaimer upon allowance of claims in the present application.

Response to Arguments

3. Applicant's arguments, see pages 7-8, filed 02/04/2008, with respect to the rejection of, for example, independent claim 1 over Fischer in view of Rosen have been fully considered and are persuasive. Specifically, the prior art fails to teach storing in a database located in a secure environment, a public key and other information linked to said public key that is used by a third party to authenticate a message. The rejection of claims 1-5 and 1-34 has been withdrawn.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Graunke and DeBry teach methods of securing public keys in a database located in a secure environment but fail to disclose storing other information linked to the public key used in authenticating messages.
